Note: The compiler found no Duckworths named head of family in the 1820 N. C. returns for Cabarrus, Cumberland, Haywood, and Johnston. In a non-Federal census of 1820 for Dallas County, Ala., Randal Duckworth is head of a household which included a white male over 21, four under 21, one white female over 21, four under 21, with 12 slaves. The Indiana data are from Willard Heiss' 1820 Federal Census for Indiana, 1966.

Note: These census returns are from microfilm copies in the Mississippi Department of Archives and History, Jackson. When known to this compiler, maiden surnames have been added in brackets. Benjamin Duckworth (family 246, above) was a son of Patrick C. Duckworth. Still another Benjamin (family 138) was an older son of Zabud (or Zabard) Duckworth. George Washington "Wash" Duckworth, Serena (Duckworth) Copeland, and Elizabeth (Duckworth) Turner were children of Williams and Ruth (Welborn) Duckworth. Additional relationships among these various families are not known to this compiler. No Duckworths are enumerated as heads of families in 1850 in Jasper County. MEG: 1960.

MEG: 5/1968

DUCKWORTH (N.C.)
War of 1812

On 7 June 1855 Thomas Duckworth, aged 63, a resident of Gaston Co., N.C., made claim for bounty land for War of 1812 service: "Drafted in Mecklenburg County about Feb 1 AD 1814 for the term of Six months ... honorably discharged at Salisbury about March AD 1814"; private in Capt. Walker's company; actual service 14 days. Applicant's credibility vouched for by William Hanks and J.F. Pegram. "The name of Thomas Duckworth is not found on the rolls Capt Walker's Co of N.C. Mil." and claim is rejected (No. 193233-Roj.-55, National Archives).

Robert Duckworth, aged 70, resident of Haywood Co., Tenn., on 26 Feb. 1851, applied for bounty land on basis of service as private under Capt. Hood, Col. Pearson's N.C. Militia, War of 1812; he volunteered "in Mecklenburg County N.C. and was mustered in Service at Saulsberry Rowan County, N. Carolina" about 1 Feb. 1814; discharged same place Aug. 1814. His credibility was certified by J.W. Rawls, J.P., and Wm. Wilson (BL Wt 42741-55-80). The carded index to compiled war of 1812 service records gives Robert's rank as corporal, Col. Pearson's 7th Regiment, N.C. Militia.

Jonathan Duckworth served as private in Pearson's 7th N.C. Militia (carded index to War of 1812 service records), but the National Archives seems to have no record of application for bounty land in his name.

DUCKWORTH (Tenn.)

Abel Duckworth (and Dukeworth) died on or about 19 Aug. 1834, "leaving no widow now surviving him". On 14 Nov. 1851, from Coffee Co., Tenn., claim is made for Abel's War of 1812 bounty land by Sidney Clay as guardian of Abel's minor orphans: Melvina Duckworth, b. 6 May 1830; Jane Duckworth, b. 14 June 1832; and Jackson Duckworth, b. 11 Oct. 1834. In Marshall Co., Tenn., 27 Nov. 1851, Eliza Duckworth gave an affidavit that the ages of the three "set forth in the foregoing declaration is a true Copy of the family Record". Same county and date, Asa Holland and John Porch gave affidavit that they served with Able Duckworth in Capt. Doak's company. Entered service 28 Sept. 1814 at Fayetteville, Lincoln Co., Tenn.; discharged 29 April 1815, Nashville (BL Wt 38623-80-50, National Archives, Washington).

William (X) Duckworth applied for War of 1812 bounty land from Dallas Co., Mo., 2 May 1855; then aged 59 and resident of Dallas Co.; send warrant to him at Buffalo, Mo. He volunteered 28 Sept. 1814, Fayetteville, Tenn.; discharged 27 April 1815, Nashville, Tenn.; private under Capt. John Doke in Col. Thomas Williamson's 2d Tenn. Mounted Volunteers. Credibility certified by John H. Paine and Robert H. Duckworth (BL Wt 22795-160-55).

Also serving from Tenn. was a Pvt. John Duckworth in Hall's 1st Tenn. Volunteers. The Nat'l Archives appears to have no application for bounty on his behalf; we may assume his death before 1850, with no living widow or minor children in 1850 to make such claim.

William DUCKWORTH (d. 1839)

William Duckworth died 11 June 1839 in Jackson Township, Sullivan Co., Mo. He was a private under Capt. Benj. Warfield, Col. Johnson's Ky. Militia 15 Aug. 19 Nov. 1813; volunteered at Mount Sterling, Montgomery Co., Ky. From Sullivan Co., Ind. (sic), on 30 Dec. 1852, claim was made by "Elizabeth Scott formerly Duckworth aged 55 years a Resident of Sullivan County ... for the purpose of obtaining the Bounty land to which the Minor Children ... may be entitled ... towit Margaret Reed Duckworth, Robert Marion Duckworth Elizabeth Ann Duckworth Intermarried with William Stark and David Jefferson Duckworth ... She was married to the said William Duckworth ... 1814", born Elizabeth Thompson. She remained a widow 6 years and then m. John (X) Scott. On 23 Dec. 1856 these two waive any claim to bounty.

On 30 Jan. 1852 "Margaret Jones formerly Margaret Duckworth", aged 53, resident of Posey Co., Ind., formerly of Montgomery Co., Ky., sister of William Duckworth, gave an affidavit of William's military service and names of his minor children. Elizabeth and Margaret Scott gave an affidavit on 23 Dec. 1856 that William Duckworth left the following children:

Lucinda, b. 3 June 1815	Thomas, b. 30 July 1825
John, b. 31 Aug. 1817, & d. many years before his father	Nancy, b. 23 Dec. 1827
Mary, b. 30 Sept. 1819	Sarah, b. 15 Jan. 1829
Joseph, b. 4 Oct. 1821, & d. previous to his father	Margaret, b. 1 Feb. 1832
William, b. 3 June 1823, & d. July 1856	Robert M., b. 8 April 1834
	Elizabeth, b. 11 April 1835
	David J., b. 18 June 1838

The warrant was issued to Abraham Wence, guardian of the minors (BL Wt 42741-55-80, National Archives).

Simon DUCKWORTH (d. 1838)

Elizabeth (X) Duckworth, aged 65, widow of Simon Duckworth, applied on 5 Nov. 1855 from Scotland Co., Mo., claiming "her Husband was drafted at Mt Sterling Kentucky ... January AD 1815 [for 6 months, but served] ... about three weeks and was honorably discharged at Cincinnati ... February 1815" in Capt. Gillaspie's company, Col. Francisco's Ky. Militia. She m. Simon in Ky. (date not given); her name before marriage was Elizabeth Logan. Simon died 11 Feb. 1838 in Monroe Co., Mo. Lucinda Baker and David Sailing gave affidavit that they knew Simon and Elizabeth in his lifetime, and they lived together as man and wife. Elizabeth had appointed John T. Neely, Esq., of D.C. her attorney on 5 Nov. 1855, but on 22 Dec. 1855 gave P/A to "W.S. Duckworth of Memphis P.O. Scotland Co" Mo. The Third Auditor's Office reported: "Simon Duckworth is on Rolls of Cap Simon Gillaspie Ky Mil in Feby 1815, but he appears not to have performed any service. His name is erased - and Mitchell Johnson, Sub. entered instead who receipts for the full service" (BL 228468-Rej-55).

On 26 Oct. 1872 Elizabeth (X) Duckworth, aged 83, resident of Benton Co., Mo., applied for pension on basis of deceased husband's service in War of 1812. Simon enlisted Sept. 1811 at Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co., Ky.; discharged Feb. 1815 at Cincinnati. As Elizabeth Logan she m. Simon Duckworth 22 May 1810 in Montgomery Co.; he d. 8(sic) Feb. 1833 in Monroe Co., Mo. The Third Auditor's Office reported on 4 Feb. 1873 "that the rolls of Capt. Lucien Gillaspie's Company of Kentucky Militia show that Simon Duckworth served by his Substitute Mitchell Johnston" 7 Feb.-7 March 1815 "and 11 days travel". Application was "Rejected by reason of insufficient service" (WO 9628; Old Wars 7628).

(Indiana: War of 1812)

In 1811 James Duckworth was an ensign and Thomas Duckworth a private in Lt-Col. Luke Decker's 4th Regiment of Indiana Territory Militia (Index to Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Soldiers, 1784-1811, National Archives).

James Duckworth, War of 1812, Ensign, Capt. Isaac Warrick, Col. Evans' 4th Indiana; joined 1811 in Posey Co., Ind., for 30 days, volunteered again in Capt. Kennedy's company at Fort Harrison, discharged at Vincennes; d. 26 March 1831 in Posey Co.; m. in Posey 22 Feb. 1810, by Paul Casselberry, J.P., to Rebecca Givens, who was still a widow and 67 years old when she applied for bounty land on 12 May 1855 from Posey Co. She signed by mark, and her application was witnessed by Jackson C. Givens and James Beadley. Her previous application, 30 Aug. 1851, gave her age as then 62 (Bl. Wt. 51635-55-120).

"Thomas Duckworth aged fifty Seven Years old the Sixth day of January last past a resident of Hamilton County State of Illinois" on 5 Dec. 1850 applied for bounty land from Posey Co., Ind.; private in Capt. Jacob Warrick's company, Col. Decker's militia; "... volunteered at and in what was called Knox County ... in that part of said County now known as Posey County" on 6 Sept. 1811 and "was at the Battle of Tippicanoe"; discharged at Vincennes 19 Nov. 1811. On 4 Aug. 1855, from Hamilton Co., Ill., Sarah (X) Duckworth, previously Sarah Curtis, applied for the additional bounty land under Act of 1855 as Thomas' widow, whom she married in Posey Co. Ind., 25 Feb. 1846, by one Absalum Duckworth, a minister in the M.E. Church. Thomas Duckworth died 16 Nov. 1852 in Hamilton Co., Ill. (BL Wt 78989-120-55, Nat'l Archives). A reasonable guess is that Sarah may have been Thomas' second or third wife.

John DUCKWORTH (d. 1843)

Jennet N. (X) Duckworth, widow of John Duckworth, applied from Posey Co., Indiana, 17 Feb. 1851 for bounty land as widow of a soldier of the War of 1812, under the Act of 1850. She is 66 years old and resident of Posey County. As Jennet N. McClure she was married to John Duckworth 20 Oct. 1807 (place not given) by Rev. Turley, Baptist minister. She says John Duckworth enlisted in Bath Co., Kentucky, about 26 Oct. 1812, and was discharged at Detroit. His discharge (in this file) is dated 20 Nov. 1813, after three months' service as private in Capt. Samuel R. Combs' company, Col. Richard M. Johnson's Reg't of Ky. Mounted Volunteers. John Duckworth d. 11 May 1843 in Posey Co., Ind. (BL Wt No. 51568-40-50, National Archives, Washington). As the widow does not seem to have applied for additional bounty land under the Act of 1855, we may assume that she died between 1851 and 1855. This file does not indicate when, between 1813 and 1843, this couple moved from Kentucky to Indiana.

DANIEL AND GEORGE DUCKWORTH, SOUTH CAROLINA, WAR OF 1812

Only two Duckworths appear to have been in military service from South Carolina in the War of 1812, both as privates of infantry in Lieut. Col. William Austin's Regiment of S.C. Drafted Militia. Daniel Duckworth enlisted for six months and served 1 Feb. - 25 March 1815 in Capt. Benjamin Goss' company. George Duc(k)worth's tour of duty was 1 Feb. - 24 March 1815 under Capt. Jacob Reed (War of 1812, carded index of service records, National Archives, Washington).

In June 1855 in Randolph Co., Ark., Elizabeth R. Duckworth, aged 59, ". . . widow of Daniel Duckworth, deceased, who was a private in the company commanded by Col. Allston, in the War with Great Britain . . . her said husband was Drafted at Pendleton, South Carolina on or about the first day of January, A.D., 1814 for the term of three months . . . discharged at the Three Sisters Ferry Ga on the 1st day of April, A.D., 1814 . . . was married to the said Daniel Duckworth in Pendleton D.C. S.C., on the 29th October 1817" by James Garrison, M.G.; her name before marriage was Elizabeth R. Duckworth, and her "husband died at Randolph Co Ark on the 23 day of August AD 1853", and she is still a widow. Claim for bounty land rejected: "No evidence of command" (War of 1812, BL Wt 195184-Rej.-55).

Daniel Duckworth was head of family in Lawrence Co., Ark., in 1830 (p. 2), his enumeration including five children under age 15 and two slaves. In the 1850 Census he is in Randolph (p. 13, family 98), cut off from Lawrence in 1835. He is 54, born in N.C.; wife Elisabeth is 50 and a native of S.C.; with them are Benjamin W., Elisabeth C., and Sarah E. Duckworth, aged 23, 13, and 11, respectively - all three born in Arkansas.

Mary (X) Ducksworth, aged 63, a resident of "Tuskaloosa County . . . Alabama, . . . widow of George Ducksworth", applied on 22 Nov. 1850 for his bounty land, stating that her husband served under "Captain Reed in the Regiment of South Carolina Volunteers commanded by Colonel Alston or Aston . . . [from] Pendleton Dist. So. Car." from about 1 Nov. 1814 to 1 March 1815, she thinks; she was married to George Ducksworth in Pendleton District on 16 Sept. 1806 by Moses Hollen, M.G. Before marriage she was Mary Blocker. George died near Mobile in 1816, and she is still a widow. On 6 March 1851 "Michal Blocker of Perry County . . . deposeth & sayeth that he seen Mary Ducksworth married to George W[?] Ducksworth" in the year 1806 (War of 1812, Bounty Land Application 73976, rejected, 50, National Archives).

In the Census of 1810 a George Duckworth is head of family in Pendleton District, S.C. (p. 260). We do not know if this is the George who died in 1816 "near Mobile", or the George who was in Covington County, Miss., in the 1820 Census (p. 5). George's widow, Mary (Blocker) Duck(s)worth, may be the Mary Ducksworth who was head of family in 1820 in Pendleton (p. 412).

Note: This compiler is uncertain of the relationships of the above Daniel and George Duckworth to any of the other numerous Duckworths of the Old Pendleton District. The late W.B. Duckworth of Tulsa named a Daniel as one of several children of an early Joseph Duckworth in Pendleton.

Governor & Council (of the Colony of Georgia), 7 Jan. 1772
"Read a Petition of Jeremiah Duckworth setting forth that he had been some time in the province had a Wife and Six Children but never had any land granted him and being now desirous of Obtaining Land for Cultivation Therefore praying for three hundred Acres of Land on the little Kioka about four miles above the Mouth thereof --

"Resolved That on Condition &c the prayer of the said Petition is granted -- (Allen D. Candler, Colonial Records of Georgia, v. 12, p. 170).

On 23 Sept. 1784 the Governor signed a grant to Jeremiah "Duck" for 250 acres in Wilkes Co., Ga. (Candler, Revolutionary Records of ... Georgia, 1908, v. 2, p. 711)

Jacob Duckworth served as a private, 1793-96, in the Georgia Militia (Index to Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Soldiers, 1784-1811, National Archives, Washington). Probably this relates to Georgia militia in Federal service on the Georgia frontiers during serious Indian attacks.

"Thomas Duckworth aged about 70 years" on 9 April 1855 applied for War of 1812 bounty land from Wayne Co., Tenn. He served as a private in Capt. Willis Shivers' company under "Col. I.A. Few ... drafted and mustered into service at Waynesboro Georgia on or about the 26th of September 1814 ... honorably discharged at Waynesboro Georgia on or about the 9th day of March 1815" (BL Wt 18676-55-160). Thomas served 26 Sept. 1814-2 March 1815 in Few's 3d Reg't, Ga. Troops; rendezvoused at Waynesboro, 60 miles "From residence, Hancock County"; discharged at Camp Covington, 150 miles to residence; allowed 14 days & 210 miles for "Travelling to and from residence" (War of 1812, compiled service records).

Jacob DUCKWORTH (b ca 1811/17)
Georgia

Jacob Duckworth served in the War with the Creek Indians, 1836; private 27 May-20 July 1836, Capt. Wm. A Carr's Co., Maj. Wm. M. Brown's Batt'n, Georgia Militia; discharged at Columbus, Ga. Under the Act of 1850 Jacob applied for bounty land on 9 Dec. 1850, then aged 33 and resident of Coffee Co., Ala, but postoffice was Americus, Sumter Co., Ga. (BL Wt 56632)

Jacob Duckworth, under the Act of 1855, applied for additional bounty land on 5 Aug. 1876, then 62 and resident of Macon Co., Ga.; resided in Dale, Coffee, and Henry counties, Ala. in 1851 and 1852. William Duckworth and Miles (X) Lamb gave affidavit 28 April 1877 that Jacob "never voluntarily" aided the late rebellion. Jacob admitted that "I served a short time as teamster in the Confederate Army ... I had two sons and several nephews in the army of Virginia." (Application 332695, Rejected)

In the War with Mexico a Jacob Duckworth served as private, Co. G, Capt. Jos. A.S. Turner, Col. Henry R. Jackson, 1st Georgia Volunteers. Jacob's discharge is dated "15 May 1847. at Monterey Mexico" and signed "Z. Taylor, Maj. Genl, U.S.A. Comdg", stating that Jacob enlisted 12 June 1846, is 35 years old, 5' 8" in height, with fair complexion, blue eyes, and dark hair; a farmer and born in Hancock Co., Ga. He applied for bounty 13 Nov. 1847 from Sumter Co., Ga. (BL Wt 16116-160-47)

Despite the age discrepancies, these references may well apply to one Jacob Duckworth, rather than two.

Comment: I have not made a systematic search of the "Register of Enlistments in the U.S. Army". Those entries are not alphabetized, but entered usually by initial letter of surname and then chronologically by date of enlistment for successive years. However, information in this Register - if and when found - usually contains more personal details than are available in the service records compiled for volunteer and militia units. Pension applications are indexed by soldier's name and often include valuable data, as do bounty land claims. These latter have not been indexed; some are filed with applicable pension papers, but most seem filed by the soldier's name and the company in which he served.

DUCKWORTH MISCELLANY

The origin of the surname, according to Elsdon C. Smith's Dictionary of American Family Names (New York, 1956), is: "DUCKWORTH (Eng). One who came from Duckworth (Ducca's homestead) in Lancashire", a county in northwest England.

William Duckworth is named in a poll of voters for Frederick County, Virginia, dated July 24, 1758 (Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, VI, 168, 171). John Duckworth of the same county is listed in September 1758 in an appropriation bill as being due 8 shillings in connection with services "for the defence of the Frontiers of this Colony" (W. W. Hening's Statutes at Large . . . Laws of Virginia, VII, 217).

In the D.A.R. records is listed John Duckworth (1759-1843) of Burke County, N. C., a native of Virginia, who married Mary Robertson or Robinson (1764-1830). Among their children are given John Duckworth, Jr. (1790-1851), who married Sarah Sellers, and Alexander Duckworth (1798-1879), who married Nancy Van Horn (D.A.R. Lineage Books, 1913 and 1914, Vol. 103, pp. 229-30, and Vol. 113, p. 272).

William Duckworth (c. 1804- 84) lived in Buncombe and Transylvania Counties, N. C. He married Emily Jordan, and they were the parents of three sons: Joseph E. (1828-1922) who married 1. Addie Fuller and 2. Mollie Fuller, William Blythe, and Van, and four daughters: Louise H., Annie L., Lucy, and Jane. This William Duckworth had twin brothers, Abram and David, who moved to Georgia. (Family data in possession of Clyde Duckworth, Esq., Charlotte, N. C.)

William Duckworth and his wife, Sara Rogers (or Rodgers), moved from Virginia to Orange County, N. C., about 1759. Members of the Duckworth and Rogers families settled in the Pendleton District, S. C., around 1800. Among the children of William and Sara Duckworth were: 1. Jacob (1755-1842), born in Frederick County, Va., served in the Revolution from N. C., married Annie Welborn (1761-1845), and died in Anderson County, S. C.; 2. Howard, married a Rogers; 3. Crockett, m. a Rogers; 4. Cooper, moved to Mississippi; 5. Elizabeth, m. Thomas Martin; and 6. Hester. (Data from Mrs. C. E. Elgin, Anderson, S. C.)

Joseph Duckworth was born in Virginia about 1760; was living in Anson County, N. C., in 1790; and by 1799 was in the Pendleton District, S. C., where he apparently died about 1820. He married Frances Ross, and among their children was Pulaski Counts Duckworth who was born in North Carolina in 1791, married Mary Smith, and moved from the Pendleton District in the early 1820's to Washington County, Missouri (information provided by W. B. Duckworth, Tulsa, Oklahoma).

Of the existing returns from the 1790 Census of the young United States, published about 1908, only in North Carolina are any Duckworths named as heads of families: Jesse and Joseph "Ducksworth", Moore County, and Joseph "Ducksworth", Anson County, all in Fayette District; John and William Duckworth, Burke County, Morgan District; and Mary "Ducksworth", Craven County, Newbern District. Among the lost Federal census returns are those of Virginia, Kentucky, and Georgia for 1790 and 1800.

William Duckworth is included on a tax list for Fayette County, Kentucky, dated March 19, 1790 (C. B. Heineman, "First Census" of Kentucky, 1790, p. 30). Tax lists of 1800 for that State show William Duckworth, junior and senior, in Green County and Robert Duckworth in Campbell County (G. G. Clift, "Second Census" of Kentucky, 1800, p. 84).

No Georgia census returns are available for 1790, 1800, or 1810; however, the Duckworth name was known there before the Revolution, and afterwards. In Richmond County is recorded a deed of September 27, 1776, of Jeremiah Duckworth and wife, Christian (also spelled Christeen), to "Leonard Marbury, Commander of the 2nd Troop of Horse, all of St. Pauls Parish, granted said Duckworth 1773" (Grace G. Davidson, Historical Collections of the Georgia Chapters, D.A.R., II, 288). In Wilkes County is recorded a deed of December 8, 1787, from Jeremiah and Christian Duckworth "to James Carter, 200 acres, orig. grant to said Jeremiah 1784, and 200 acres which was conveyed to him by Margret Davison, orig. grant to her 1784 on Brier creek" (Davidson, Early Records of Georgia, I, 271).

Jeremiah and Jacob Duckworth are named in the tabulation, "Georgia Soldiers of the Line, Revolutionary War". By certificate of Col. James McNeill in 1784 they were listed as entitled to bounty lands. On December 23, 1784, Jacob Duckworth was granted 287½ acres in Washington County on the west branch of Williamson's swamp (Lucian L. Knight, Georgia's Roster of the Revolution, pp. 380, 68, and 285).

Jeremiah, Joseph, and William Duckworth are listed in 1793 as land-owners in Captain Neal's District, Wilkes County, Georgia (Ruth Blair, Some Early Tax Digests of Georgia, pp. 284-5). In 1794 they continue on the tax rolls in the same militia district (pp. 184-5), but now in Warren, that county having been established in the meantime, partly from Wilkes.

In 1805 they still own lands on Whites, Briar, and Uptons Creeks (pp. 214-6), and Randol Duckworth also is listed, with 300 acres on Whites Creek. In 1818 only Rebecca Duckworth is named in Warren County (p. 229), with 426 acres, and apparently as successor to William Duckworth, as in both 1805 and 1818 the lands are described as on Uptons Creek, with Ansley as grantee. In the 1812 tax returns for Captain Smith's District of Hancock County, Jacob Duckworth is shown as owning lands in that county and Wilkes, while Thomas and Jeremiah Duckworth are listed only for poll taxes (p. 41).

"Jas" Duckworth and Sterling Gardner, Justices of the Peace in Warren County, Georgia, on December 20, 1806, signed a recommendation in behalf of "John Breed and William Dennis wishing to Emigrate to the westward." The Governor of Georgia issued them "a Pass port through the Creek Nation." On December 26, 1806, another similar petition was signed by "Jos" Duckworth, J. P., and William Duckworth (microfilm of typescript, "Passports issued by Governors of Georgia, 1785-1820," pp. 82-3; Mississippi Department of Archives and History). Presumably "Jas" is an error in transcription, and Joseph Duckworth is the correct name.

In a non-federal census

Randal Duckworth is listed in 1820 in Dallas County, Alabama, as head of a family which included one white male over 21, four under 21, one white female over 21, four under 21, with 12 slaves. In December of the same year the Governor appointed him as a justice of the County Court (Alabama Historical Quarterly, VI, 376, 126). In 1821-22 Randall Duckworth served as a representative from Dallas County in the Alabama Legislature (Walter M. Jackson, Story of Selma, p. 521). Very likely, Randol, Randal, and Randall Duckworth are the same individual.

A branch of the Duckworth family in northwest Arkansas was represented by L. L. Duckworth. He was born "in Union County, Georgia, 17 July, 1842. His parents were Robert R. and Lucinda (Hall) Duckworth, both of whom were natives of North Carolina, and in that State their marriage occurred in 1832. The father was born September 5, 1810, and in 1834 he removed to Georgia, settling in Union County, where he resided until 1850. He then came to Arkansas, . . . in Benton County. . . The paternal grandfather, Alexander Duckworth, was a native of North Carolina and died in that State." (Centennial History of Arkansas, III)*

STATE OF ARKANSAS
COUNTY OF ASHLEY

Before the Clerk in vacation, March 10, 1859, on this day personally appeared before me Abner W. Files, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Probate Court in and for the County of Ashley in the State of Arkansas Milton Thacker whose name is subscribed as a witness to the foregoing papers, purporting to be the last will and testament of William Duckworth, and after being duly sworn deposes and says, that I did at the request of William Duckworth and under his direction write the foregoing paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William Duckworth and I subscribed his name thereto at his request, and I read to him the paper written by me, and he executed the same in my presents by making his mark thereto and he did declare and acknowledge to me, that the same was his last will and testament, and I did then and there in his presents and at his request subscribe my name as a witness thereto, in the presents also of R. W. Nobles, Another witness whose name is subscribed thereto, and do further depose and say, that William Duckworth, when he executed said Last will and Testament was of sound mind and disposing memory.

Milton Thacker

Sworn to and subscribed before me the 10th day of March, 1859.

A. W. Files, Clerk.

Also appeared before me Robert W. Nobles, whose name is subscribed to the foregoing paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William Duckworth, as a witness thereto, and after being duly sworn doth depose and say, That I saw Milton Thacker whose name is subscribed to the foregoing paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William Duckworth write the same and I heard him read the same to William Duckworth, and I saw William Duckworth execute the same, by making his mark thereto and the said William Duckworth, did then and there in my presents declare and acknowledge to me and said Milton Thacker that the same was his Last Will and Testament, and I did then and there at the request of said William Duckworth and in his presents and the presents of Milton Thacker subscribe my name as a witness thereto, and I further depose and say, that William Duckworth at the time he executed his Last Will and Testament was of sound mind and memory.

R. W. Noble

Subscribed to and sworn to before me this 10th day of March, 1859.

A. W. Files, Clerk

The above and foregoing will was filed in my office for Record on the 10th day of March 1859, and duly recorded on the same day.

A. W. Files, Clerk.

Will Record "A", Page 33.

Note: The above information is taken from Will Record Book No. 1, pages 280, 281, 282, of the record of the Ashley County Abstract Company, Hamburg, Arkansas. Most of the early probate records of Ashley County were destroyed in a courthouse fire in the 1920's.

Moses A. Duckworth, named in the will as executor, was killed April 6, 1862, in the Battle of Shiloh. On July 28, 1862, the Probate Court named another son, William Y., as administrator of the estate. As part of the settlement, a deed was given on July 20, 1869 (Ashley County Deed Book "G", page 518), which refers to the estate as that of "William Duckworth second". Possibly the original deed referred to him as "William Duckworth senior" to distinguish him from his son and administrator, William Y. Duckworth (1825-1889), and the official recorder of deeds may have misread and miscopied the word. Further on in the same instrument, the estate is also described as that of "William" and, then, "Williams" Duckworth. MEG: 1960.

RANDAL DUCKWORTH'S WILL

I, Randal Duckworth of the County of Dallas and State of Alabama do ordain and constitute this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows,-

I direct that my just debts, of every denomination be paid, as soon after my decease as possible.

It is my intention to leave my Estate divided Equally between my children giving to each an equal share computing what each one has already received,

To my daughter Orpah Livingston I have already given off one full share of my estate for her benefit.

My daughter Delpha Butler, has received property to the value of two hundred and twenty dollars which is to be deducted from her share of my Estate, all the property that comes to her from my Estate is to be hers during her natural life after her death to the ofsprings of her body should she die without issue then to go to her brothers and sisters or next nearest of kin,-

My son Allanson Duckworth has received property to the value of thirteen hundred dollars, which is to be deducted from his part of myestate,-

My son Jeremiah Duckworth has received property to the value of four hundred dollars, which is to be deducted from his share of my Estate -

My daughter Elizabeth Thomas Wiley has received property to the value of three hundred dollars which is to be deducted from her share of my Estate - and I direct that all the property which may fall to her share shall be hers during her natural life and at her death to the legal heirs of her body. Should she die without leaving issue then to her brothers and sisters or the next nearest of kin.

My daughter Nancy Berry has received property to the value of one thousand dollars which is to be deducted from her portion of my Estate, and I further direct that her daughter Sarah Martin shall have an equal portion of the property so bequeathed its mother with the rest of her ofsprings. I also direct that whatever portion of property may fall into her hands from my estate is to be hers during her natural life at her death to the legal heirs of her body. Should she die without leaving issue then to her brothers and sisters or next nearest of kin,

My son Randal Duckworth has received property to the value of nine hundred and fifty dollars which is to be deducted from his share of my estate -

My son William Duckworth has received property to the value of five hundred dollars which is to be deducted in like manner from his portion of my estate.

In consequence of the infancy of my daughter Eumanza I direct that Negro boy Ballam and the little Negro girl Angeline be given to her in addition to her equal share with the other children and that she also be educated and supported until she marries or becomes of age, out of the joint proceeds of my estate, -

My two sons Jeremiah and Randal - and Alfred Berry are hereby appointed to act under this Will - and I direct when the final division of my property that three disinterested and experienced citizens may be chosen for that purpose who shall proceed to divide it in such a manner as to simplify the labor and to do exact justice to the provisions of this Will -

In testimony of which I have this day approved and signed what is contained on the two preceding pages, this fifth day of April in the Year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty--

Randal Duckworth (L.S.)

The due Execution of the above Will was duly proven in open Court by the Oath of James McCall and William Boroughs the Subscribing Witnesses and ordered to be Recorded Corn Dowd Clk

Hannah Ducksworth and Bryan Boroughs the Executors therein Named Was duly Quallified According to Law Corn Dowd Clk

Note: The above is recorded in Moore Co., N.C., Will Book A, 1784-1819, pp. 365-66. Brothers Jeremiah and Jacob were presumably dead by 1817. Jeremiah may be the Duckworth of that name who was a "Regulator" in 1768 in Orange Co., N.C., probably the Jeremiah in Georgia by 1772, with six children. After the Revolution a Jacob Duckworth appears, with Jeremiah, in various Georgia records before 1810. In Pendleton and Anderson Districts, S.C., is a puzzling Jacob Duckworth; his descendants give 1755-1842 for his dates, but the census takers, 1810-1840, provide him with a birth year between 1770 and 1775 - rather than 1755.

WILL OF WILLIAM DUCKWORTH OF FREDERICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1761

I, Malcolm E. Gardner of 9 Natchez Trace Parkway, Tupelo, Mississippi, do hereby swear that about the year 1921 in Hamburg, Arkansas, I personally made a verbatim copy of the three record pages of the family Bible of William Y. Duckworth (1825-1889) of Ashley County, Arkansas. The Bible was then in the custody of my grandmother, Estelle (Adams) Duckworth, widow of Thomas G. Duckworth (1848-1918). This Bible is last known to have been in possession of F. R. W. "Judge" Duckworth, who died April 4, 1933, in Ashley County. Subsequent whereabouts of the old Bible are unknown to me. The entries were in various hands, and ornate capital letters caused some uncertainties, as between J and I, J and Y, and R and F. With this reservation, I hereby certify that the foregoing two-page typescript is a true and correct copy of the original Bible record.

Note: William Younger Duckworth was born in Covington County, Mississippi, and died in Ashley County, Arkansas. He was a son of William(s) and Ruth (Welborn) Duckworth and married 1. Savilla Jane and 2. Nancy Virginia, daughters of Aaron and Lucy (Stevenson) Welborn of Jones County, Mississippi. In 1850 W. Y. Duckworth was head of a family in Smith County, and his father was in adjoining Jones County, Mississippi. They moved in 1851 to Ashley County, Arkansas, where the elder Duckworth died in 1858, leaving a will. Many of this family are buried in the old Duckworth family cemetery, a mile south of Egypt Church in Mill Creek Township in Ashley County.

Note: This compiler does not know the whereabouts of the old Bible or the page for deaths. Photostats of the originals of the marriage and birth pages are in the possession of Mrs. Clara Duckworth Barker, Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Hazel Duckworth Huckabee, Tyler, Texas, and Malcolm E. Gardner, Tupelo, Mississippi, R. W. Duckworth's daughter, granddaughter, and great-nephew, respectively. This record does not include the birth in May 1907 of Jewel Duckworth, youngest child of R. W. and Ellen Duckworth.

The birth of Franklin Robert Welborn ("Judge") Duckworth was entered as "F. W. Duckworth 20 day of October AD 1856" in the Bible record of his father, William Y. Duckworth of Ashley County. A further commentary on the accuracy, and consistency, of old records: He is listed as "A. W." Duckworth, aged 3 and born in Arkansas, in his father's household at the time of the 1860 Census. He is not named in the 1870 Census in Ashley County. On R. W. Duckworth's tombstone in Egypt Cemetery, in Ashley County, are the dates, October 25, 1854, and April 4, 1933, for birth and death; his half brother, Edd (E. C. C.) Duckworth, was administrator of the estate. A. W., F. W., R. W., and F. R. W. Duckworth are the same individual.

THE ROBERT DUCKWORTH FAMILY

Robert Duckworth was born August 10, 1853, in Jones County, Mississippi. He was a son of George Washington "Wash" Duckworth and his first wife, Serena Youngblood, and a grandson of Williams and Ruth (Welborn) Duckworth. Robert Duckworth married Elizabeth Hopkins (b. 1856; d. Feb. 26, 1905), daughter of Robert and Nancy Hopkins. They moved from Jones County, Mississippi, to the Spring Hill community in Ashley County, Arkansas, about 1889. Robert Duckworth died January 25, 1903, in Ashley County, and is buried in Egypt Cemetery. Robert and Elizabeth Hopkins Duckworth had ten children, the first six being born in Jones County and the other four in Ashley. In order of birth, these children were:

- I. James Washington "Wash" Duckworth, b. Sept. 10, 1875; d. Oct. 20, 1953; m. 1. Selina Knight (no children), 2. Rhoda Dailey (b. Aug. 20, 1885) on June 22, 1901. Children of the second marriage:

The date of birth given above for F. R. W. "Judge" Duckworth is from the W. Y. Duckworth Bible. The McGuire-Duckworth Bible gives October 25, 1855. NEG: 1960.

PEDIGREE of DUCKWORTH.

Granted by Sir Isaac Heard, 27th April 1803. Arms: Argent, on a chevron Azure, between two ducks in chief and an anchor erect in base, proper, a bomb fired Or, accompanied by two crosses patée of the field; on a chief of the second, a naval crown of the third, between 2 estoils of the first.

Crest: On a wreath a tower, the battlements partly demolished, from the top flames issuant, proper; on the sinister side a sea-lion erect Azure, the paws pressing against the Tower.

Supporters: On the dexter side a human figure, proper; a mantle over the sinister shoulder flowing to the waist Purpure from a belt Or; a sword pendant, in the dexter hand a club, in the sinister a lion's skin, also proper; the whole powdered with estoils Azure, in allusion to the Constellation Orion, being the name of the ship which he commanded on the 1st of June 1794: and on the sinister side a sailor habited, proper, the exterior hand supporting a flagstaff thereon hoisted, a broad pendant flowing to the dexter, Gules. Motto: Disciplina, Fide, Perseverantia.

Admiral Duckworth was the son of a Clergyman, of a Lancashire family, but his father was Curate of Leigh and of Letherhead in Surrey, at the latter of which places the Admiral was born, and was baptised there 28th February 1748-9, as appears by the Parish Register. He has been in almost continual service from a very early period. He was under Lord Howe in the three memorable actions of the 28th and 29th of May and the 1st of June 1794. 8th June 1797 he was appointed Colonel of Marines. 14th February 1799 made a Rear Admiral of the White. In 1800 he took a most valuable Lima convoy. Made K. B. 6th June 1801. In 1803 he was appointed to the Jamaica station, where he conducted himself so much to the satisfaction of the inhabitants of the Island, that a sword was voted to him by the Assembly. In 1805 he was detached by Lord Collingwood in quest of a French squadron, which he pursued to the West Indies, and fell in with in St. Domingo Bay on the 6th of February 1806, when the whole of the enemy's ships, consisting of five sail of the line, two frigates, and one corvette, were taken and destroyed, except one frigate and the corvette, for which he received the thanks of the Houses of Lords and Commons, and had a pension of 1000*l.* a year settled on him. On his return home from the West Indies in the Grafton, in February 1781, the passage was long and tempestuous. The crew being very sickly, he daily sent his fresh meat and wine to the invalids, and lived chiefly on the salt provisions usually served out to the crew.

OF GEORGIA AND ARKANSAS

Samuel Adams (III) was born October 30, 1802, and died May 9, 1872, in Fannin County, Texas. According to family tradition, he was born in the Tar River country of North Carolina, a son of Samuel and Nancy (McKeel) Adams and a grandson of still another Samuel Adams, said to have been a soldier in the Revolution. A possible coincidence is that the 1790 Census for North Carolina names a Samuel Adams and Elizabeth McKeel as neighboring heads of families (page 127) in Beaufort County, Newbern District. This third Samuel Adams is said to have had a sister, Maria, and a brother, Harmon, the latter marrying Sarah, daughter of McDaniel Oliver. In 1826 "Herman" and Samuel Adams are named in the tax digest in Captain Tyson's district of Twiggs County, Georgia, as is their future father-in-law, McDaniel Oliver. On January 22, 1829, in Twiggs County, the third Samuel Adams married Eliza Oliver (Sept. 10, 1812-June 3, 1899, daughter of McDaniel Oliver and his first wife, Priscilla Harrison). Samuel Adams is named in the 1830 Census in Twiggs, and in his household are enumerated his wife and young son, with seven slaves. In 1835 Samuel and Harman Adams entered lands in Township 12, Range 26, Section 17, of Barbour County, Alabama. This county was created in 1832 and lies just across the Chattahoochee River from Stewart County, Georgia. The Indian troubles of the mid-1830's probably drove the Adams brothers from Barbour County. Before 1850 Samuel and Eliza Adams had settled in Stewart County. (Note: The above Samuel Adams should not be confused with his contemporary of the same name, the Samuel Adams who was born Dec. 14, 1810, and married Holland Vosse in 1834. We do not know of any relationship between these two Samuel Adamases, other than their living in Stewart County at the same time.)

In 1858 Samuel and Eliza (Oliver) Adams moved from Stewart County to

Ashley County, Arkansas, where they were still living in 1870. Their 14 children, all born in Georgia, were:

- I. William Franklin Adams, b. Dec. 30, 1829 in Twiggs County; d. April 11, 1863, in Confederate military service; m. Susan Ann Clements (Oct. 13, 1837-ca. 1890), daughter of William and Jane (Lawson) Clements; their children:
 - A. Estelle Adams, b. Jan. 13, 1854; d. Jan. 28, 1930; m. Jan. 15, 1871, Thomas Gaines Duckworth (Jan. 28, 1848-Nov. 3, 1918), son of William Y. and Savilla (Walborn) Duckworth; lived in Ashley County, Arkansas.
 - B. Georgia Ann Adams, b. Jan. 11, 1856; d. Oct. 8, 1892; m. Evander Falk (Feb. 5, 1852-April 27, 1917) on Nov. 14, 1878; lived in Georgia and North Carolina.

Note: The above information is drawn mainly from the family Bible of Samuel Adams (1802-1872), in the custody of Dr. William E. Chappell, Blacksburg, Virginia; family data in the hands of Mrs. W. O. Hancock (nee Vivian Elizabeth Cobb), Silver Spring, Maryland; History of Twiggs County, Georgia, Faulk and Jones, Columbus, 1960; "Land Grants in Barbour County", Alabama Genealogical Register, Vol. III, pp. 39-48, March 1961; 1850 Census for Stewart County, Georgia, and 1860 and 1870 Censuses for Ashley County, Arkansas; and notes from some 40-year old letters of Mrs. Mary L. (Baker) Cribbs, Chatham, Louisiana. This account is presently limited to the children and grandchildren of Samuel and Eliza Adams, insofar as information about them is available to this compiler.
